Mikyla	If tears could build a stairway, and memories a lane, I'd walk right up to Heaven and bring you home again.

Donivan Quinton Martin	2 years and 10 months ago, you left without any warning or us getting to say goodbye. Your death changed so many things and yet time didn't heal the hurt we still feel with your passing. We know God's plan is always bigger than ours and he needed you more. We wish we could hear your voice one more time and we could chat like we used to and just being around you but it's not possible as we are left with an empty space just filled with all the memories we made over the years together and for that we are grateful for, knowing you and the person you were will stay with us forever. We miss your sound advice as much as being around you. They say time heals all wounds but ours is still the same, the pain, hurt and heartache we felt. We miss you tremendously. All Our celebrations were tough and now Christmas is approaching for the 3rd time without you and it still hurts. Our King, our Legend, our rock we Love and miss u always in our hearts and mind  from wife, children, sons and daughter-in-laws and grandchildren
Shelton Williams	Your life was a blessing your memory a treasure, you are loved beyond words and missed beyond measure
Lea Manuel	Mom, now I know why you always told me to be strong. You knew that one day I would need strength to bear your loss.
Hung-Jen Henry Yuan	In Loving Memory
Chris Hutchinson	Forever in my
Valerie Hawken	Thank you mom for the loving unselfish way you cared for us. You have influenced our lives in a mighty and positive way. We still live by the standards you taught us.
John Hawken	Thank you Dad for being a hands-on Dad. For caring for us with such unselfish love. For being interested in and taking part in everything that we enjoyed and was important to us. We love and miss you.

Malcolm Ernstzen	Dear Malcolm Alfred Ernstzen, You fought your battle with so much integrity, love and great strength. You were an incredible father, husband and friend, you were always ready to help others in any way you could. You served your purpose well on this earth and will always be remembered, you were a true inspiration to many! Thank you for the incredible times we had together. You are sorely missed, but your light will shine on in our hearts forever. We love you
Professor Sathasivan Arunachallam	When someone you love becomes a memory, the memory becomes a treasure. We loved you truly and immensely and will never forget you.
